Our Choice

"If I were sitting here and the whole outside world were indifferent to what I was doing, I would Still Want to be doing just what I am."

Mr. Shuytak, you have been a friend to us. But more than a friend, you have helped us in particular, on the yearbook, in our studies, and in our personal matters. You have overlooked our forgetfulness, our carelessness, and our inconsideration. You have made us look within ourselves and laugh; you have pushed us further along the path to maturity. Your calm resolution and your perspective of life has taken away our anger and substituted understanding. How can we say thank you to a man who has done so much? We could have bought you a gift, presented you with money, but this does not show our true feelings. Instead we chose to work long hours to produce this yearbook for you. The 1969 Tiger Tales is only the tangible embodying the intangible - our admiration. Therefore, we dedicate our yearbook, which is so all-important in our Senior year, to you, "our Mr. Shu."

In Memoriam

The students of Wellsville High School will always remember Dwight Brookman. He was a friend to all and a very active member of W.H.S. He was greatly liked by everyone and his loss was deeply felt by all, especially by the members of his class.

This year the Tiger Rag newspaper was edited by Vicki Baker. Vicki introduced many new aspects to our newspaper. She added color to various parts of the paper, enlarged the pages, added the Class gossip columns, and in addition she originated the baby picture section. We feel that she has done a great job and deserves a hearty thank-you.

The Junior-Senior Prom was once again held in Virginia Gardens April 25. The Liberty Brass provided the music and the Juniors did a fine job decorating for the theme, "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing." Everything was just perfect. This year the Juniors chose as their king and queen, Gerry Bucher and Vicki Biacco.

After the prom everyone advanced to the post-prom to dance to the music of "The New Breed," and float on "Cloud Nine."

A football season depends on a great effort by every member of the team, but the seniors, with more maturity and awareness as a whole, always seem to add extra vitality and enthusiasm to the squad. Especially towards the end of the season when there are less future games to look forward to, the effort put forth by these older boys provides an example by which the younger members of the team abide, either consciously or subconsciously.

It takes a special drive, courage, and ability to put together a football team after a season without one. Yet these seniors hailed to the task as true leaders, always giving their fullest determination to the cause.

Although it is hard and disheartening to go through a season with only one win, these boys never stopped exerting a one-hundred percent effort. Without their leadership, next year's team would have a harder task to perform.

And so, for their undying love and devotion to the sport of football and W.H.S., we salute these men and dedicate to them these two pages. Thanks, men!

The 1968-69 Tigers Basketball Team went 15-3 on the season, establishing the second best record in the school's history, and the best since the early 1950's. In addition, they conquered the Buckeye Border Conference championship for the first time in the history of the school with a brilliant 10-0 record. Everyone had high hopes for the Tigers in tournament play, but the team went down to a heartbreaking defeat in their first game with Steubenville Central by a score of 64-57.

BILL MILLER - Senior Guard
All-Conference

Aside from their great winning record as a team, each of the 1968-69 first five starters achieved individual status.

Ken Kornbau, a senior guard was voted all-conference, mostly for his ability to set up plays, keeping his cool. He also excelled in leadership of his team as their captain.

The other starting guard, who also played forward much of the time, was Bill Miller. Bill played one hundred per cent constantly and through the use of his "missle-arm" aided the team in many vicotories. At the season's end, he, too, was recognized as all-conference.

John Bobalik, an outstanding junior on the squad, received an honorable mention for All-Eastern Ohio. This was in addition to his All-Conference choice for his tremendous rebounding and shooting abilities. John should prove valuable in the future.

All Conference Tigers

JOE D'ANGELO - Sophomore
Forward All-Conference

The fourth Tiger to achieve All-Conference recognition was Joe D'Angelo. Joe, being only a sophomore, should prove invaluable to the future Tigers as an outstanding shooter, who seemed to always get a hot streak just when things began to look bad.

In addition to these four, another Tiger was given an All-Conference honorable mention. This was Paul Martin, junior center. Paul's defensive abilities made him stand out from the crowd, as he blocked numerous shots and brought down an abundance of rebounds.

A great team requires great players, but also, a player's greatness is more evident when he is surrounded by players of similar ability. It is through the combination of these players and a strong bench that the 1968-69 Tigers were able to excel as they did.

OFFICERS -

Gregg Brophy

Jim Garee
Jerry Bucher

The class of 1970, under the guidance of class sponsor, Mrs. Jane Frontone, and the leadership of their chosen officers had a great year. They received their class rings in late September, and then set about selecting their Junior Play. In November the 1920's comedy, "And Never Been Kissed," was presented with Sally McCutcheon and Betty Lomax in the lead parts. The money from this with the money from the candy sale and the concession stand, went towards the financing of the annual Junior-Senior Prom which was held at Virginia Gardens in West Virginia. They chose as the theme "Love is a Many Splendored Thing." All the hard work and many hours proved to be very rewarding the night of the prom. Now they advance to the long awaited moment when they become the much honored Senior class of "70."

The Junior Class presented as its play "And Never Been Kissed." The 1920 comedy centers around two young girls. Flory Patterson, played by Sally McCutcheon and Milly Myers played by Betty Lomax. # Senior Play

Mr. Toop, and his beautiful ex-actress wife Penelope.

"Hello, my name's Ida."

"See How They Run."

This year's Seniors really outdid themselves, and all the classes in recent years, when they presented their class play, "See How They Run." About 900 saw the play and most of them were still laughing when it was over.

The set, designed by Craig Russell, was beautiful, as usual. With a fireplace, a staircase, and French doors, leading to a garden, it immediately gave the impression of a neat English home and was a perfect compliment to the performances given by the cast.

Janet Lewis, who starred as Penelope, and Tom Trainer, who was her close friend Clive, were hilarious throughout the play as they kept getting into one mix-up after another. Sherry Roberts, the maid Ida, was very funny, especially when she was trying to convince Clive that she was charming and had a lot of UMPH! Cathy French's portrayal of Miss Skillon, a nosy neighbor who had a bit too much cooking sherry, was delightful. Don McCombs, who played Mr. Toop, Penelope's husband, was the comedy highlight of the play as he ran, jumped, and tripped across the stage in his "Touche" shorts. Steve Crea, who played the English policeman, made a great "bobby" with his club and English accent. Morton Hughes, as the Russian spy, Dick McIntosh as the Bishop, and Terry Ewing, as Rev. Humphrey all did great jobs.

The cast received many compliments on its performance, but the best one came from the Friday audience, who gave the cast a standing ovation - a first for plays given at W.H.S. Congratulations to the cast and Mr. Caporossi.

"You brute, beast, swine, Devil!"

"Why, Mrs. Toop, I never!"

"Oh, Mr. Toop what has happened?"

"I'll say what I have to say in court!"

"I'll take that your Bishopric."

"Take me away, take me away!"

"Oh hhh"

"Penelope, - what is that noise?"

"What the ell's going on here?"
L??

"I'm a desperate man."

"Why me Lord, why me?"

"Boy, am I glad that's done."

"Don't know man, Don't know."

Oh yea?

The Senior banquet was held at the First Christian Church this year. Craig Russell and his committee decorated the walls with posters of our outstanding events at W.H.S. Those posters brought back many fond memories. The laughter, the jokes, good food, and the entainment went to make an evening to be remembered.

94th Commencement

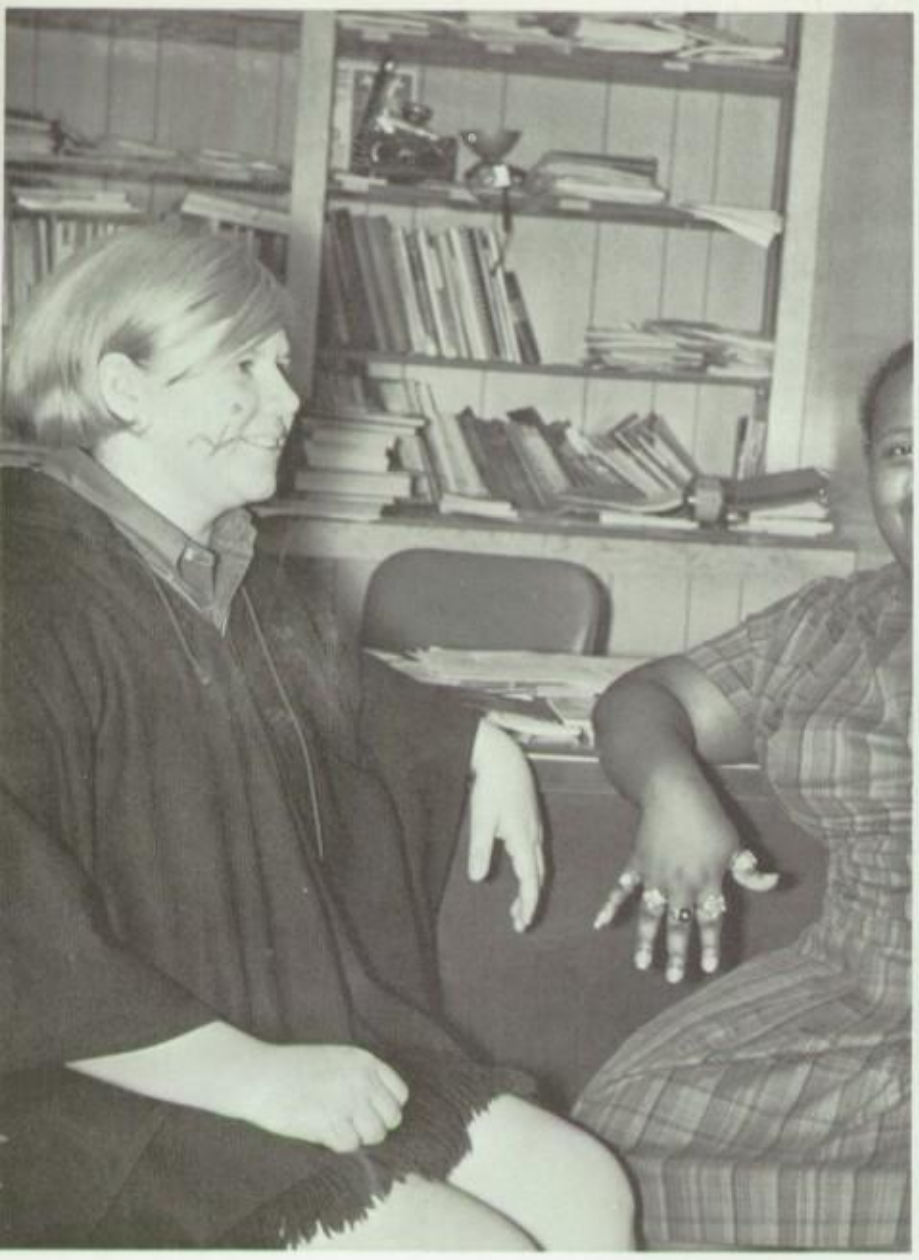
Presentation of diplomas by Mr. William Ferrall and Miss Mary Jenkins.

"Freedom is Not Free," Senator Oliver Ocasek, Assistant Professor of Education at the University of Akron, stated as he addressed the graduating class of 1969 at the June 3rd exercises. Mr. William Ferrall, President of the Board of Education, assisted by Miss Mary Jenkins, V. President of the Board, presented the diplomas, as Mr. William Menough, Principal of the school presented the class of W.H.S.

The great moment came as John Weeda, president of the class of '69, led the class in the traditional changing of the tassels. Rev. James Sanko gave the invocation and the benediction.



Presently It's Over,
Yet Never Forgotten.

Class History

In September of 1965, a large group of bewildered students entered Wellsville High School as Freshmen and prepared to tackle the four-year courses. It's hard to believe that this group of small frightened kids were us, the Class of 1969. High School was a new experience for all of us. We frantically ran about trying to find the rooms listed on our schedules. It took us a while to get used to the classes, teachers, rules, and regulations. After a few weeks things became normal and many of us joined the various organizations that were offered. As the months wore on, the newness wore off and the homework piled up. We ended our freshman year with The Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner for our English teacher, Mrs. Calhoun.

The Sophomore year then came in the fall of 1966. Now we knew our way around, or so we thought. With this year came the traditional Silas Marner and the discovery of poetry. As the year slowly came to an end, it was time for us to order our class rings. In November the school levy was voted on and was turned down. This meant no sports or other activities for the following year. The students rebelled against this by holding a student walk-out up at Roadside Park. We then began to realize that a big year as "Upperclassmen" was awaiting us.

All of a sudden it was 1967 and we were Juniors. It was a big and exciting year for all of us, thanks to the passage of the school levy, which was again voted on in November. Our first class election was held under the supervision of Mr. Wescott, our class sponsor. The officers chosen were Rich Whiteman, President; Ann Clark, Vice-President; Cheryl Cable, Secretary; and Sonnie Richards, Treasurer. Soon afterwards, we began working hard to raise money. In February we presented our first class play, "The Family Man" starring Dianna Brown and Eric Bush. We worked hard at the concession stand during basketball season and then sold peanut brittle later on in the year. Our time and money went for a good cause - the annual Junior-Senior Prom, held at Virginia Gardens in Chester, West Virginia. "Standing in the Shadows of Love" was chosen as the prom theme and "The Happening" as the theme for the post-prom. The evening was highlighted with the crowning of Sonnie Richards as Queen, and Don McCombs as King. The Prom turned out to be one of the best proms ever held, thanks to the wonderful work of Craig Russell and his committee. Then, before we knew it, it was time for the Junior Research themes, and everyone was busy writing. This kept us pretty busy until the end of the year when we handed the themes in to Miss Irwin and Miss Kerr.

Before we knew it, it was our Senior year - the year we all had been waiting for. At last we were "mighty" Seniors. Class elections were held and the results were: John Weeda, President, Ken Kornbau, Vice-President, Selmar Dorsey, Secretary, and Dave Bell, Treasurer. Our Senior year proved to be busier than ever. Vicki Baker was announced Editor of our school newspaper, The Tiger Rag, and Janet Lewis as Assistant Editor. The biggest activity was the preparation of the Yearbook which was efficiently handled by Ann Clark, Editor-in-Chief; Sandy Bratt, Associate Editor; and Eric Bush, Business Manager. The yearbook was supervised by Mr. Shutyak. Under the direction of our class sponsor, Mr. Caporossi, we operated the football concession stand. The highlight for the fall was the Homecoming, in which Sue DeSenze was crowned Queen. Just before Christmas vacation the Seniors held to the tradition of singing Christmas Carols through the halls of W.H.S. In February we put on a Three One-Act Festival which included "The Devil and Miss Appleby" starring Phyllis Surace and Graylen Waggoner, "The Devil and Tom Walker" starring Steve Betz and Pete McCollam, and "The Devil and Daniel Webster," starring Denny McCarty and Morton Hughes. The Sweetheart Dance then came with Linda Rodgers reigning as Queen. Soon afterwards the Military Ball followed with Rhonda Pickens as Queen and Eric Bush as King. In April, we presented, "See How They Run," starring Janet Lewis and Tom Trainer. One of the highlights in sports was our Buckeye Border Championship in both basketball and track. The days rushed by all too quickly and suddenly we were exchanging pictures, sending announcements, trying on caps and gowns, and getting ready for graduation. Our principal, Mr. Menough, announced the top students. Receiving this honor were: Cindy Moore, valedictorian; and Mattie Coleman and Janet Lewis, co-salutatorians.

Now our last year is at an end. Now we look back on the last four years - the friends, the classes, the clubs, the dances, the parties, and the teachers and we are filled with memories that will remain in our hearts forever. How could four short years go by so quickly?

Class Prophecy

While sitting in my favorite chair, my imagination began to run wild wondering what my classmates of '69 will be doing in the next twenty years.

Rich millionaire, SUE DeSENZE, is being chauffeured down Main Street by RICHARD McINTOSH. Who is that with her? Why, it looks like BILL BURGESS, the famous singer and dancer. Here comes NANCY JARVIS, the first woman mayor of Wellsville, to greet them. Right behind her is Safety Service Director SHERRY ROBERTS. As they are being escorted down the street by Patrolmen MORTON HUGHES and DON RUSSELL, they see VICKI BAKER and BUTCH SNYDER just coming out of the church. They have just tied the knot of matrimony. There is Reverend SCOTT MACLEAN shaking hands with them. Whoops Butch just fell down the steps!! At the red light, PAT CAROSIELLO, the town gossip, stops them to relate the latest news. It seems SELMAR DORSEY is a professor of speech at Harvard and just got locked up for disorderly conduct. VICKI CATALDO is an operator of a cheerleading school in Flat Bush, West Virginia.

After talking to Pat, Sue and Bill continue on to good old Wellsville High School. The first person they see is GRAYLEN WAGGONER, the principal, with his whip in hand. He informs them that JANET STOVER is teaching gym and DIANE CHASE is instructing "pop" art. The Wellsville High School Band is marching down the street while director TERRY EWING is screaming at them to keep the lines straight. Hearing the commotion, Superintendent RICHARD STILLWELL comes to investigate. Richard has just heard that JOHN WEEDA and DENNY McCARTY, star waterboys for the GREEN BAY PACKERS, will be speaking at the football banquet. While they were standing in front of the school, Postmaster RICHARD MEADOWS came chasing Mailman BRUCE WELLINGTON up the street. Bruce had forgotten his mailbag.

While making the rounds of Wellsville, Sue and Bill decide to visit the Greater Wellsville Airport. On the way they stop at STEVE BETZ'S ranch. What a place! Steve is in the race horse business with TOM WEAVER as his jockey and they are winning thousands. Next to the ranch is PETE McCOLLAM'S ponderosa. Pete is out plowing with his faithful old gray mule. He still hasn't caught on to the new ways. Seeing a big auction they decided to stop for a moment. Auctioneer BRAD CALL was doing his thing! DON BREWER, BARBARA HALE, and RAYMOND MATHES were bidding on two cows for their dairy farms. Here comes MARY CORBISELLO tugging on a mule. Good luck Mary!

On up the road they pick up two hippie hitch-hikers. They turned out to be MARY ANN RAINES and BILL MOORE, although you couldn't tell the he from the she. Mary Ann and Bill tell them that DEBBIE LANAM is manager of the "Blondes Have More Fun Beauty Parlor." STEVE CREA now owns a rabbit farm and his family is increasing about as fast as the rabbits.

Arriving at the airport they say good-bye to Mary and Bill. Walking down the hall they see CATHY PHENICIE, ticket saleswoman for Sun Airlines. At the summer theater handsome DAVE BELL is making his debut in "Money Isn't Everything, but it Sure Helps." With Dave is his manager, CHERYL CABLE. She has quite a time keeping Dave from chasing all the girls. BOB WILLIAMS is running the "Groovy Cafe" and RICHARD ZUNGALI is proprietor of the "Soft Drink Shop." JIM McINTOSH is cutting things up in his barber shop and JOANIE TRAINER is making a mint selling contact lenses, and transistor radios on the side. PENNY WASKO is also running a "Polish Pickle Store."

Going out on the observation deck, they see pilot BILL BREWER coming in for a bumpy landing. EDIE JOHNSTON and KAREN BUNFILL, the stewardesses, were a bit shaken up. Also getting off the plane is opera star, SHARON HOWELL, and cartoonist, CRAIG RUSSELL.

Strolling over to the airport's indoor swimming pool they see PHYLLIS SURACE as the airport's bathing beauty. Keeping an eye on everyone is lifeguard, RICK ROSS; of course he spends most of his time eyeing the girls. Sitting by the pool are authors DIANNE BROWN and MATTIE COLEMAN. Dianne wrote "The Generation Gap" which sold a million copies. Mattie wrote "How to Study." It seems not many people wanted to know how to study because it sure didn't sell a million.

Leaving the airport they pass the new multi million dollar shopping mall. Sue saw a Paris Fashion Show being advertized so they decided to stop. The fashion show was at the "Gunny Shoppe" owned by FRANCIE HAWK. As they entered, doorman FRED JOY greets them with a cheery Hello. Clerks DEBBIE EWING and SUE McDEVITT smile as they walk by. Elevatorman, RONNIE AMMON, has the elevator stuck between the first and second floor, so they must walk up stairs. On the way they see MIKE DOTSON demonstrating a left handed snow shovel. Finally, they arrive at the third floor where fashion manager ANN CLARK greets them. Ann tells them that fashion model JANNIE BRODERICK is here from Hollywood and BECKY OSBORN will model lounging pajamas. JOHN STEPHENS is going to model mod fashions for men. The high fashion model, CINDY MOORE, was in charge of the Paris Originals. The First Lady, KATHY TURNBULL is here with her personal secretary, CINDY ROE. Music is being provided by the famous country-western singer DON McCOMBS and Frill BILL MILLER'S Catering Service is providing the hors d'oeuvre.

After the fashion show they decide to visit Francie in the main office. The first person they encounter is receptionist CINDY McCULLOUGH and on down the hall are typists DEBBIE McCUNE, NANCY HEATON, and SHARON SHANKS. Assistant-manager, KENNY KORNBAU rushes in to greet the visitors. Kenny shows them the new computer which CATHY FRENCH is running. She is trying to find the perfect man.

Being time to eat, Kenny takes them to the "Millionaire Club" for lunch. The club is run by HARRY SMITH. They order a "tall cool one" from bartender CHUCK GEER and waitress MARILYN HENTHORNE takes their order. While sipping on their drinks, master of ceremonies DANA WHITEMAN introduces "The Singing Three," which includes LOLA PORTER, MARSHA PORTER, and PAT McCUEN. Finishing lunch they depart from the mall.

They stopped at the City Hall to see Police-Chief CHARLES CAMPBELL. He informs them his prisoners are ALDO MASE and JAYNE REED. They were trying to be another Bonnie and Clyde but just didn't make it. Taking a tour they see Treasurer TOM WOLSKI, Auditor GUY LINDESMITH, and Attorney ERIC BUSH. Upon leaving they find that metermaid RENEE DAWSON has just given them a ticket.

On down the street they see editor JANET LEWIS entering the Wellsville Daily News. The "rag" is conducting a campaign against gambling. Her assistant editor is NARBIRDA OSBORNE and the Photographer is KARL WILLIAMS. They all got thrown in jail for publishing a picture of the mayor and Police-Chief taking bribes. Glancing through the paper they see HERBIE CHOINA has won his tenth boxing match. His manager, DON COLLINS, predicts he will be world champion in six months. Also on the sports page, they find that the Wellsville girls football team beat East Liverpool 50-0. The six foot two quarterback, PAULA TODD, made several touchdowns and 295 lb. KOOK CHEMA kicked a 87 yard field goal. On the front page was news of our President RICH WHITE-MAN. He owes the government $100,000 in back income taxes, but they haven't im-peached him as yet. While he is still in office he is having interior decorator DEBBIE WESTLAKE remodel the White House. Debbie decided to use "flower Power" as the theme. She hired SUE USELTON to make the drapes ministyle, and CARL THOMAS and LARRY FRYMAN are to do the wallpapering and painting. After the decorating is done the President has instructed his personal secretary, SANDY BRATT, to make ar-rangements for a dinner for astronauts DON CROSKEY and TOM TRAINER. While reading another article they find out that Playboy editor, RAYME SIRIANNI is being sued by DEBBIE LOWTHER. She is waging a war on pornography. A flash just came in saying that "Lover" LINDA RODGERS, "Joker" JANICE WRIGHT, and "Fearless" RHONDA PICKENS, with "Jolly" JANE STEVENS, have just taken over the town. FBI agents TOM HANLON, LINDA REESE, and ARTHUR GEISSE are on the case.

After leaving the newspaper they walk on up town to see the new stores. The first place they see is LINDA BENDER'S "Yard Long Hot Dog Shoppe." The "Insomnia Hotel" is run by JEANETTE ROBERTS and the switchboard operator, BECKY RICCIUTI, learns all the gossip by listening carefully. ROSEMARY SCARABINO is instructing at Y.W.C.A. She is giving courses on how to lose weight and keep your man. BECKY McDOWELL, the 200 lb. weight lifter, is her first customer. The sign in the window of the 5 and 10 says it is under new management. RHEA CRONIN is the new owner and has clown BONNIE TARNOVICH giving out balloons.

Well, it is time to leave the old stomping grounds, but first they had to get gas. They find that EDDIE BELL is running a new ten pump gas station. Oh, they almost forgot!! They couldn't leave town without visiting the nightly hang-out, the Dairy Queen! They find that SONNIE RICHARDS is the owner and her speciality is double dip chocolate-strawberry sundaes.

Well, it is time to stop daydreaming and return to graduation time. Remember, "We are great. We are fine. We are the Class of 1969."

One of Our Illustrious Graduates.
